and the software user
(hereinafter referred to as the user)

If you do not agree with this the contents of this agreement in all aspects, please inform us of this in writing within 10 days following the receipt of this agreement.

The Federal Agency for Land Topography (swisstopo) provides the user with the datasets «CHGeo2004» and «Geoid+HTRANS» for the calculation of precise geoid heights; respectively, height transformations in Switzerland with software products of the company Esri, subject to the below stated conditions.

Dataset: The datasets «CHGeo2004» and «Geoid+HTRANS» comprise the geoid of Switzerland (Geoid 2004) as well as the transformation dataset for the approximate transformation of ellipsoid heights in CHTRF95 according to utility heights in LN02. Both datasets are within the reference framework CHTRF95/ETRS89. The validity of the data is limited to the region of Switzerland! The precision of transformation equals approx. 1 - 2 cm in the central lands and approx. 10 cm in the alpine regions.

Licensing: The license entitles the user to install the dataset on any desired number of computers per company location.

Property rights and copyrights: The property rights and copyrights to the dataset remain with swisstopo. Transmission to third parties is specified in an additional document.

Liability: swisstopo and the company Esri fundamentally reject any liability for damages directly or indirectly resulting from the use of the datasets.

Maintenance of the dataset: The user, the company Esri and swisstopo shall mutually orient each other regarding any flaws or novelties found.

Legal venue: The legal venue is Bern.

Scope of validity: Only that which was here or later agreed in writing applies. This agreement applies solely to the purchase object in question and has no effects on further transactions of both contractual parties.
